

GUANGZHOU BOSMA Corp. Joins the Micro Four Thirds System Standard Group

Joint Standard Expands Product Line-ups and Extends the Enjoyment of Imaging Opportunities

Tokyo, Japan, May 18, 2022 – OM Digital Solutions Corporation¹ and Panasonic Entertainment & Communication Co., Ltd.² jointly announced the Micro Four Thirds System standard in 2008, and have since been working together to promote the standard. We are pleased to announce today that GUANGZHOU BOSMA CORP (hereinafter BOSMA) has declared their support for the Micro Four Thirds System standard and will be introducing compliant products to the market. The Micro Four Thirds System is currently supported by 58 companies, including companies focusing on B2B operations.

BOSMA offers a variety of products including BOX/HD cameras (4K,8K). The possibilities unique to a joint standard are sure to push the enjoyment of imaging even further.

As the company responsible for initiating both the Four Thirds System and the Micro Four Thirds System standards, OM Digital Solutions will continue to develop and enhance the product line-up to meet the diverse needs of our customers.
